University City District is pleased to have worked with the University City Review to publish the 2012 Close at Hand. We hope you find this directory of goods and services a useful tool for navigating our diverse neighborhood.
Dear Friends and Neighbors:

We’re pleased to present to you another edition of Close at Hand, our neighborhood directory of goods and services in University City.

As residents, you already know that University City is more than just a neighborhood. It’s the region’s leader in education, science, and innovation, with world-class universities and medical institutions. It’s a destination for food lovers and culture seekers, with internationally acclaimed dining, museums, and galleries. It’s a vibrant, close-knit community, full of idyllic parks and green spaces. And, University City District and the University City Review believe that it’s unlike any neighborhood in the region.

With such an abundance and diversity of local businesses in University City, we encourage you to use this directory and buy locally as often as possible. Supporting our one-of-a-kind businesses and preserving the distinct character of University City will help the neighborhood thrive and continue to grow. These businesses are an integral part of what makes University City a great place to live, work and play.

Be sure to frequently check in with us online as we continue to announce new and exciting developments throughout the neighborhood at both universitycity.org and ucreview.com.

We hope that you find Close at Hand useful.

Sincerely,

Matt Bergheiser
University City District

Bob Christian
University City Review

Any provider of goods and services located in University City with a telephone number and address in the neighborhood qualified for a free listing in this publication. We have made every attempt to be as comprehensive as possible. The inclusion of a business in this publication does not constitute an endorsement or recommendation by University City District or the University City Review.

WE BUILT THIS BOOK...
Flexing editorial and sales muscles developed with entrepreneurs and innovators, business and non-profit...
Drawing on long-term neighborhood memories...
Revising these listings and selling these ads...

We’re REAP. Resources for Effective
Activities and Programs.
• We wield words to explore, explain, and persuade.
• We can help you build goodwill, long patron lists,
and healthy bank accounts.

SUCCESS
• We helped a staffing service grow from startup to
#2 on the national Inc. 500 list and Philly 100 Hall
of Fame.
• We created a new revenue source for a weekly newspaper.
• We developed record-breaking sales and fundraising campaigns.

We’re close at hand. Call us now.

Drexel University
Proud to serve young people...and all Philadelphians.

Drexel’s goal is to be the most civically engaged university in the nation, including creating opportunities for neighborhood and city youth. Below are just a few ways Drexel is working with young people.

Philadelphia Futures
Drexel hosts Philadelphia Futures’ Summer Institute, an intensive bridge program introducing college-bound graduates of Philadelphia public high schools to college-level academics through courses taught by Drexel faculty members.

WorkReady
Drexel is a proud partner in this Philadelphia Youth Network program matching 5,000-plus high school students with employment opportunities and service programs that help them build skills for careers.

Health Outreach Program
College of Medicine students and faculty clinicians provide free primary health services to Philadelphia children and adults at four sites across the city.

Holiday Toy Drive
Since 1996, Drexel and community partners have distributed more than 50,000 toys collected by students, faculty and staff and local businesses for Philadelphia children in need at the holidays.

For more information on Drexel’s initiatives in University City and across Philadelphia, visit drexel.edu/civicengagement.
