

WPSI IS RECRUITING ACROSS PHILADELPHIA

for training and job opportunities as an Access Services Associate earning $17.69/hour
in partnership with Penn Medicine!

Who should apply?

Compassionate, patient-focused, and computer-proficient individuals with experience in customer service. Experience working in a call center is a plus. Commitment to the full training schedule (below) is required:

- Facilitated group conversations via Zoom, Mon - Fri, 9AM - 12PM, 9/6 - 9/26
- Additional one-on-one and small group virtual meetings several times a week between 1PM - 3PM
- Approximately 2 hours of daily reading and reflection exercises

This is a virtual program, so consistent access to a laptop or desktop computer, broadband internet, a webcam, and a word processing program like Microsoft Word, Google Documents, or similar are required to complete the training.

What is WPSI?

The West Philadelphia Skills Initiative (WPSI) designs and runs programs which connect you to the tools and supports needed to build a career that is meaningful to you.

In this program, we offer:

- Cutting-edge job connection strategies resulting in 97% of graduates finding employment.
- A $150 weekly stipend while in training at WPSI.
- The opportunity to interview for open, full-time Access Services Associate positions at a Penn Medicine call center starting at $17.69/hour.

Are you eligible? All applicants must:

- Be a resident of Philadelphia
- Commit to the full training schedule
- Possess a high school diploma or GED
- Be unemployed
- Be tobacco-free
- Candidates for WPSI's Access Services Associate Program must provide proof of having received the COVID-19 vaccine by August 26th, 2022 to be considered; employment at Penn Medicine requires an annual influenza (flu) shot and other vaccines.
