Who should apply?
Goal-oriented, motivated individuals with high-quality people skills who want to train as Emergency Medical Technicians (EMTs). This program is a blend of virtual courses and in-person sessions following CDC COVID-19 regulations at Drexel University. Masks will be provided for in-person sessions if needed. Participants must commit to the schedule on the right.

What is WPSI?
The West Philadelphia Skills Initiative (WPSI) runs programs that connect you to the tools and supports needed to build a career that is meaningful to you.

In this program, we offer:
• Cutting-edge job connection strategies resulting in 95% of WPSI graduates finding employment.
• A $150 weekly stipend while enrolled in the program.
• No-cost EMT training. Similar programs can cost up to $2,500.
• Upon successful completion WPSI’s EMT Certification Training program in partnership with Drexel University, graduates will take the NREMT exam to become a National and PA Department of Health certified EMT.

Are you eligible?
All applicants must live in the city of Philadelphia, possess a high school diploma or GED, hold an active valid PA driver’s license, be physically fit, commit to the full training schedule listed above, and read at an 11th grade level or higher.
